

LASER DRILL

The campsite should be selected on the basis of a fresh water supply. However, drought and other natural disasters may require that the family drill wells for water. The laser drill will help speed this task along. Once a suitable location is found by the environmental control robot the rig can be assembled and set to work.

The drill is also capable of mining radio active ore and the deutronium fuel pellets required to power the Jupiter 2.